

TOWN OF NORTH PROVIDENCE
PROPERTY OWNERS

New residents of the Town of North Providence are hereby notified that applications for exemptions from taxation must be filed no later than December 31, 2012, in order to be eligible for 2013 tax billing year. Exemptions include Veterans, Disabled Veterans, Widow of Veterans, Elderly, Blind, and Low Income Elderly and or Disabled, specially adapted housing for the handicapped, specially adapted housing for veterans and the Homestead Exemption. Certain restrictions and requirements apply to each exemption category. Please visit the Tax Assessor's Office for more information.

The Town is now offering to those individuals who have special needs a 50% reduction on their Motor Vehicle Excise bill. An Ordinance amending chapter 32, article five, and add section 32-26 established this exemption for those who have had special equipment installed in a vehicle for the purpose of private use, and not commercial use. I.e. Wheelchair lifts; wheelchair carriers; steering devices; hand controls. If you feel you are eligible for this exemption please come to the Tax Assessor's Office on or before December 31, 2012, with your vehicle, and fill out an application.
