

COLLECTOR'S RETURN

The undersigned, Ann M. Troccoli, Tax Collector for the Town of North Providence, in accordance with provisions of Title 44 Chapter 9 Section 13 of the General Laws of The State of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended makes this her return of sales of real estate in the Town of North Providence, for non-payment of taxes, water and/or assessments, held on the 1st day of May 2026 at 10:00 a.m. local time, as follows:

All real estate in said Town upon which the taxes, water and/or assessments assessed December 31, 2024 and prior years were due and unpaid were duly levied upon by said Tax Collector according to law.

Said Tax Collector caused to be published once, at least three weeks prior to the date of the advertised sale, to wit: On 9th day of April 2026 in the Providence Journal published in the County of Providence, State of Rhode Island a daily newspaper, and did advertise a statement concerning the time and place of the sale and giving a full description of the real estate liable for payment of taxes with the names of the persons against whom the real estate was assessed with a list of the parcel or parcels to be offered for sale by Assessor's description and that said estates described in said published notice or so much thereof as would pay the tax with interest, costs and expenses, would be sold at public auction to be held in the Town of North Providence Town Hall located at 2000 Smith Street, North Providence, RI, on the 1st day of May 2026 at 10:00 a.m. local time, and thereafter did publish a formal legal notice between the date of original advertisement and the time of sale specified therein, to wit: April 16, 2026, April 23, 2026 and April 30, 2026, all in accordance with the statute in such case made and provided. Stating that the Tax Collector would sell at public auction the real estate thus advertised, which notice included reference to the original advertisement and did also cause notice of the time and place of sale to issue to the persons to whom said estates were taxed. Said notices were served 20 or more days previous to the day of sale, in accordance with the statutory provisions pertaining to such service, and did post up notices in two public places in said Town of North Providence to wit: Town of North Providence Bulletin Board and the United States Post Office, both located in the Town of North Providence, Rhode Island.

On 1st day of May 2026 at 10:00 a.m. local time, the sale was held in accordance with the aforesaid notices and at the time and place stated therein. The person accepting the smallest portion of each estate sold was considered the highest bidder. The following lots taxed to the person or persons hereinafter described set forth below were offered for sale and were sold to the highest bidder for the total amount of the tax plus interest, costs and expenses thereon:
